

Neuroscience Stroke Foundations

Summer 2016 Session

at Penrose Hospital

Pt. 1: August 03, 2016 0900-1300 Cancer Conf rm

Pt. 2: August 10, 2016 0900-1300 Cancer Conf rm

Pt. 3: August 23, 2016 0900-1300 Cancer Conf rm

Part 1 course description: This presentation will cover the foundations for stroke care, including neuro-anatomy, patient presentation, NIHSS assessment, patient management, stroke mechanism and secondary stroke prevention, and nursing interventions specific to stroke.

Part 2 course description: Come learn more about intracranial bleeds, causes, and treatment options. Nursing considerations regarding intracerebral pressure monitoring throughout levels of care will be addressed.

Part 3 course description: Focus is on mechanism and treatment of traumatic brain injuries. Nursing considerations regarding the care of this complex and challenging patient population.

Presented by Terri Kiernan, MSN, RN, FNP-BC, CCRN, CNRN, ANVP-BC, NVRN-BC

No cost to attend > Pre-Hospital CE available

Register: in LEARN: Search for 'PSF Stroke' or

<http://ezregister.com/events/17384/>

Nursing License number required at time of registration to receive CE.

Penrose-St. Francis Health Services is approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number 15587 for 4 Contact Hours for each offering.
No partial contact hours given for partial attendance.